

Christians

Nominal Christians
Cultural Christians

Changed Christians
Born anew by God's Spirit

Christians of this World
Assimilated Christians who do not clearly separate church and state or adopt non-Biblical values on such matters as war, self-defense, finances, entertainment, recreation, education, marriage, healthcare, clothing styles, retirement, etc.

“Two-Kingdom Christians”

“Historic Pilgrim Church”

“Evil and Vile”
People who live no differently than unbelievers but call themselves Christian. Some are murderers, openly immoral, drunkards, idolaters, swindlers.

← Spectrum →

“Good Neighbors”
People who believe in Jesus and want to be good people but are not yet following some very important teachings of Jesus and his apostles.

Many early Christians..
Many early Waldensians...
Many early Anabaptists...

There are still Christians today who take Jesus's teachings seriously who have beliefs and practices that were commonly held by the early Christians!

Professing Christians Chart